Alto Los Romeros, named after the meadows of wild rosemary that grow on the peaks of the estate hills, is a family of wines with origins in the prime locations of Chile's finest valleys. The aim is to express the unique terroir of the vineyards where the grapes are grown.

Tasting Notes:

Intense and bright ruby red in colour. The wine reveals aromas of plum and dark cherry, combined with spiced and toasted notes from oak barrel ageing. On the palate, the wine is weighty with firm tannins and the finish reveals dark fruit, coffee and light vanilla flavours. This is a wine with great character and body.
