In honour of Pierre Bourotte's grand-father, Jean-Baptiste Audy, this is a wine of power and depth, produced from the oldest Merlot vines of the property grown on a deep clay soil.

Tasting Notes:

This wine is produced from 100% Merlot grapes, produced by the oldest vines on the estate. A wine of great depth, showing a tightly knit structure, rich in stewed plum fruit with a lick of liquorice giving added intensity. The tannins are ripe and succulent and the finish beautifully balanced. Superb value for money.
