This is an excellent Château that produces very classy wine. The 2023 vintage exhibits an abundance of elegance, charm and ripeness. Great value.

Tasting Notes:

Charming nose, open and lush, the palate shows nice concentration with notes of red and black fruits, cassis, some graphite and cedar supporting. The structure is well balanced, medium weight and freshens towards the finish. The tannins are held in check by the sweet fruit and acidity, with an overall impression of elegance, charm and ripeness.
