Leoville-Barton is one of the most consistent, high performers of the St Julien appellation, always producing beautifully constructed and tightly knit wine.

Tasting Notes:

Cabernet Sauvignon dominant, the nose is rich, dark and intense in the glass. The palate is a combination of sweet black fruits cut with notes of savoury capsicum, cedar and some graphite. The palate is powerful and somewhat opulent, sweet-edged and muscular and then it tightens on the finish. A superb claret!
