After the First Growths this is traditionally one of the highest performing Chateaux and is always in high demand. A classic Palmer, rich and creamy whilst maintaining a beautiful precision.

Tasting Notes:

This is a stellar Palmer with lower alcohol levels perfectly balancing an opulent and concentrated wine that has a lovely poise and refined classicism. There is more Cabernet in the blend this vintage yielding powerful and muscular black fruits, mulled cherry and a touch of violets builds as you swirl the glass, then notes of chocolate and a degree of spice edge over - but all this is balanced perfectly by an elegant and brooding tannin framework that holds the whole wine in perfect balance. The finish just goes on and on..
