

HOUSE OF TOWNEND

FAMILY WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1906

Château Rouget 2023, Pomerol 6 x 75cl

Price	£198.00
Code	ROUG005

Owned by the Labruyère family in 1992, this is well positioned Château, close to Petrus and Eglise-Clinet. A very stylish Pomerol.

Tasting Notes:

Plump, elegant and smoky, dialled down from the chewy, oak dominated wines of previous vintages. This Rouget is elegance personified, but with the signature Pomerol notes of lush sweet mocha, cherry and plum fruit, cut through with a refined acidity and touch of pepper and liquorice. Generous, rich and rounded.

Producer Overview	This Pomerol property was purchased by the Labruyère family in 1992. Located in the northern part of the appellation, located near such famous names as Eglise-Clinet and Petrus, the 18 ha of vines stretch across the gentle slopes of the Pomerol plateau. Unusual for Bordeaux is the practice of whole bunch ferment in the vinification process. The wines from the property get better year on year.
Closure Type	Cork
Food Matches	Delicious with rare roast beef with seasonal vegetables and yorkshire pudding.
