FAMILY WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1906

Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Corbeaux 2018, Domaine Sérafín

Price £105.00
Code GEVR900

Frédérique Goulley, the niece of Christian Sérafín, is now in sole charge of the winemaking at this top domaine, after serving her apprenticeship under Christian Sérafín for ten years. The wine making philosophy remains the same and this continues to be one of the finest domaines of the appellation. The wines are hand crafted, with old vines and low yields central to the winemaking here. A cool ten day maceration helps create a stunning richness and concentration with the diligent use of new oak and the non-filtration of his wines being key to the Sérafín style. They continue to destem around 70% of the bunches. The grapes are fermented at a relatively high temperature and enjoy up to 100% new oak ageing. For those who like a gutsy Gevrey-Chambertin with plenty of ageing potential, this is your stop!

Tasting Notes:

This 1er Cru is situated just outside the village of Gevrey adjacent to the Grand Cru of Mazis- Chambertin. Within the Corbeaux vineyards there is a small walled vineyard (a Clos) which is owned exclusively by the Sérafín family. Planted on deep clay and rocky soils, the vines are 50 years old, or as Frédérique commented, "...they are now at the end of their adolescence!" Aged in 100% new oak. Brooding, tight and intense, this is a monstrous wine, inky black and powerful in construction. There is an underlying layer of crème de mure that provides a delicious succulence and also a streak of minerality. There is a lot happening in this very complex wine.
