The vines are located at the top of the hillside overlooking the village of Meursault, enjoying a south/ south east exposure. The name Tillets is derived from lime trees that grow around the vineyards in Medieval times.

Tasting Notes:

Aged in 25% new oak, this is a classic Meursault – rich with flavours of honey and nougat, balanced by a steely minerality. There is a great backbone running through this wine that gives great structure and holds the oak perfectly. Excellent!
