This wine symbolizes the memories, stories and strong relationships that are integral to a successful family business. They are the reason why family businesses succeed over so many generations. This Special Collector's Edition Vintage Port, with a unique design, carries the names of the family and long-standing friends and clients, who participated in the collaborative "lagarada" celebrating the 100th anniversary of the company.

Tasting Notes:

Very deep ruby in colour. There is superlative aromatic intensity, with a predominance of bramble, currant and raspberry jam on the bouquet. The palate is elegant and silky, with great fruity intensity, supported by fresh and firm tannins. The concentration of fruit from the old vines, around 60 years old, is very evident, combining the elegance of Touriga Nacional and the unique structure of Touriga Franca. The finish is intense yet floral, a perfect combination of dried flowers, ripe fruit intensity and a dash of cocoa.

Press Comments	Deep purple, with an expressive, peppery, floral (dried rose) nose and palate, assertive tannins and fresh acidity to the attack, becoming creamier, with velvety, milk chocolate-edged red and black fruits – mulberry, raspberry, black berry – going through. Sumptuous, but with good tannin underpinning, freshness and persistence. Finishes long, fine, well-focused. Lovely intensity. On day two, violets bring heady lift to nose and palate and the tannins seem better integrated, making for a long, seamless palate – velvety, without detracting at all from its lovely vein of acidity or subtle mineral nuances. Read more online
