FAMILY WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1906

Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières 2023 Domaine Bachelet-Monnot 6 x 75cl

Price	-£1.00
Code	PULI029

This old vineyard, close to Meursault and on the same contour with the same soil composition as Chevalier Montrachet, contains a thick broken limestone substrata showing through the thin topsoil. The 53 year old vines ensure complexity, power and intensity.

Tasting Notes:

this is a wonderful polished wine demonstrating classic Puligny character, steely and mineral with a sumptuous wet stone minerality. A profound tropical fruit wrap continues with a long and intense finish.

Producer Overview	In 2005 Marc and Alex Bachelet formed Domaine Bachelet-Monnot with the help of their Uncle Monnot and father. Given the combination of exceptional vineyards, an excellent vintage, and the brothers' attention to details in the vines and in the cellar, the first release of the Domaine's Puligny wines received immediate recognition both locally as well as internationally. The seat of the domaine is situated in Dezize-lès-Maranges, just southwest of Santenay. No herbicides are used in the vineyards and regular ploughing of the rows is carried out to manage weeds.
Closure Type	Cork
